On a Roll

Published: Thursday, April 17, 2008 at 2:22 a.m.

Downtown sushi lovers, get your chopsticks ready.

A permit was recently filed for Gosh Express to be at 246 N. Kentucky Ave., measuring 2,186 square feet and costing $200,000. It is expected to be open in late June or early July for lunch and dinner. Unlike Gosh Asian Bistro & Sushi located on South Florida Avenue, Gosh Express will offer a smaller menu of Gosh's most popular items. Those include the volcano roll and the house salad with ginger dressing, said owner Phuong Vo. Yummy!
